

DOCTOR WHO RADIO TIMES THE CURSE OF FENRIC

ORIGINAL BROADCAST – 25 October to 15 November 1989

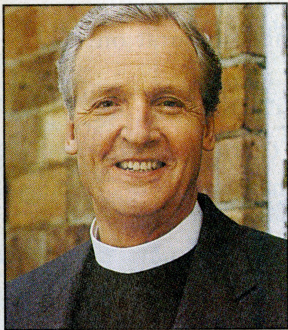

LETTER – Issue Dated 21-27 October 1989

COMPETITION – Issue Dated 28 October to 3 November 1989

PARSONS KNOWS

'To a lot of people I'm just Mr Aggressive Quizmaster,' says Nicholas Parsons, the latest famous face to join Doctor Who (Wednesday BBC1). 'So it's great to not only go back to acting, which is what I was trained to do, but also to play the good guy.'

Yes, Parsons is playing the local vicar, and just to complete the theological theme he's also Rector of St Andrew's University. And so perfect a parson did Parsons make that during filming he was often asked for details of services.

Who watches Doctor Who?

I would like to disagree with Miss Hazel Ford (Radio Times 23-29 September) on the point of Doctor Who (Wednesdays BBC1) not being a children's programme. I would like Miss Ford and anyone else who agrees with her to know that it is not just an adult's programme. Many children enjoy the thrilling antics of Doctor Who and his companion.

I myself have watched Doctor Who since a very early age. I am now 13 and have a younger brother and sister who have also watched it since they were young.

TAKE THE TELLY ADDICTS SCREEN TEST AND Holiday in Hollywood

THE COMPETITION

CAN YOU tell the difference between the Two Ronnies and the two Rons? Could you find your way around both Albert Square and Ramsay Street? Can you chart a course from The Omedin Line to Howards' Way?

If you can, why not put your television knowledge to a real Telly Addicts screen test in our great competition. Win, and you and a partner could be one of five couples off to Los Angeles – with Hollywood on your doorstep.

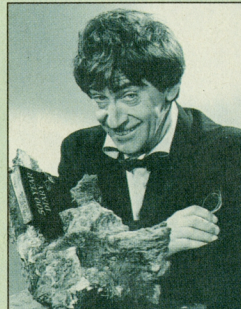

How do you win? At the end of the latest Telly Addicts on 23 October, Noel Edmonds showed four clips from four well-known TV programmes. Here in Radio Times we are giving four extra clues to help you identify the shows. Then, in each of the next three editions of Telly Addicts, there will be four more clips – and four more clues in the next three issues of Radio Times. That's 16 programmes – all you have to do is name them.

So keep a note of your answers week by week – you can even cut out this page – and just to make things easy we will be repeating all 16 clues in the final week of the competition, along with a set of rules and the entry form. Fill it in and send it off and Hollywood could be just around the corner.

THE CLUES

1: Automobiles at the end of the alphabet

2: There's a question mark hanging over this chap's head

3: You might have viewed the 'head boy' on this programme through the round window

4: Despite evidence to the contrary, what were the main characters?

THE PRIZES

Five winners and their partners will win a week in one of the world's most exciting places – Los Angeles, California.

- Your flight will be with TWA. One of the world's premier airlines, with 40 years of transatlantic flying, TWA will ensure our winners arrive relaxed and refreshed.
- You will stay at either the Los Angeles Hilton and Towers or the Los Angeles Airport Hilton and Towers. Both hotels offer exceptional service and attention.

LOS ANGELES HILTON
AND Towers

- Travel will be made all the easier by Hertz, who will provide a luxury self-drive car for our winners. There will also be the free passes to local attractions.

- The highlight of your holiday will be a visit to Universal Studios, Hollywood, for a behind-the-scenes look at where movie dreams are made.
